

Existing Regulations for extensions for Cities withing San Mateo County

| City                       | Number of extensions | Total time for extensions    | Approving Authority                 | Findings | Fees                                    | Additional Conditions and/or Remarks   |
|----------------------------|----------------------|------------------------------|-------------------------------------|----------|---|--|
| Belmont             | 1                    | One-year                     | Original approving body             | Y        | $845                                   |  |
| Burlingame          | 1                    | One-year                     | Director                            | Y        | $917                                   |  |
| San Bruno           | 2                    | Two-years for each extension | Director / Planning Commission      | Y        | $1,204 (first)$1,907 (second)     | The director may approve the first extension. Second extension to be approved by Planning Commission |
| San Carlos          | 1                    | Two-years                    | Zoning Administrator                | N        | $1,257                                 |  |
| San Mateo           | 1                    | Two-years                    | Zoning Administrator                | Y        | $3,000 Deposit                         |  |
| South San Francisco | 3                    | One-year                     | Chief Planner                       | Y        | $2,793                                 |  |
| Menlo Park          | 1                    | One-year                     | Director                            | N        | $438                                   |  |
| Millbrae            | Not specified        | Not specified                | Planning Commission or City Council | Y        | $791.87 (Admin.)$2,638.88 (Disc.) |  |
| Redwood City        | 1                    | One-year                     | Director                            | Y        | $108                                   | Director may require a public hearing if deemed necessary  |